

“DELFINO BIANCO” 17.12.2010
COLLISION WITH “MOBY WONDER”

On 17th December 2010, the ro-ro vessel “Delfino Bianco” collided with the ferryboat “Moby Wonder” during night navigation between Marina di Carrara and Olbia, in the open sea close to Isola d’Elba. The collision caused a long rip along the right side of the ferryboat “Moby Wonder” and to the bow and the left side of the vessel “Delfino Bianco”.

We have been instructed by the P&I Club to investigate the casualty and protect “Delfino Bianco” interests either within the Inquiry conducted by the Maritime Authority and judicial proceedings commenced as a consequence of the event.
